The Music Man

Wed. Nov. 18 & Thurs. Nov. 19

7:00 p.m. in the Hauser Auditorium

Admission free

Hauser Junior High School invites you to travel back in time to small town turn-of-the-century life with its heart-warming production of the American musical classic, The Music Man. With a cast of 50 students (plus more than 60 students and parents working behind the scenes), the musical follows smooth-talking traveling salesman, Harold Hill, who tries to convince the town to organize a boy's band. You're sure to enjoy the memorable River City townfolks, witty script, and catchy tunes such as "The Wells Fargo Wagon," "Seventy-Six Trombones," and "Till There Was You."

The musical is co-directed by Mr. David Mason and Ms. Laura Lynch with musical accompaniment by Mrs. Patricia Goyette-Gill and Mr. James Colombo. Although there is no charge for admission, donations toward expenses will be gratefully accepted.
