

N O V E M B E R 1 1 , 2 0 0 9

VETERANS Day

celebration

CENTRAL SCHOOL CELEBRATES VETERANS

Invitations

On the following two pages are two different invitations. The first is to send to people you know will come, or may want to come. The second is to send to veterans who may be too far away or for some reason are unable to participate in our celebration.

✧ Calling all Veterans ✧

Please invite parents, grandparents, neighbors, friends, brothers, and sisters to attend our celebration. All veterans are welcome to attend and speak at our assembly.

LEARNING ABOUT OUR VETERANS

In music class we talk about who veterans are and what they do for us. The first part of this is what makes someone a veteran. The answer that we use in class is they are people who have been in the armed forces. We then discuss what the armed forces are (Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, and Coast Guard.) After this we talk about what veterans have done and do for us. The answer that we come to is that veterans are people who gave their time and effort to keep us safe and free. Please talk with your children about these topics at home all year, but especially on Veterans Day!

Come for the celebration stay for the food

After the celebration we will have a gathering place for veterans and their families to meet and talk with each other. We encourage all in attendance to take part in this wonderful time of story telling and thanksgiving.

Students can practice at Mr. Howes' website.

Veterans Day Celebration

NOVEMBER 11, 2009

Dear _____,

My school is having a celebration for Veterans Day on Wednesday, November 11, 2009 at 1:00 pm. I would like to invite you to be a special guest at this celebration because you are a veteran. I hope you can come because I am proud of you.

Love,

*W*ithout the brave efforts of all the soldiers, sailors, airmen, and marines and their families, this Nation, along with our allies around the world, would not stand so boldly, shine so brightly and live so freely.

-Lane Evans

Veterans Day Celebration

NOVEMBER 11, 2009

Dear _____,

My school is having a celebration for Veterans Day on Wednesday, November 11, 2009. I know that you will not be able to come to our celebration, but I would like you to know that I will be thinking about you on this day. Thank you for your service. I am proud of you.

Love,

*W*ithout the brave efforts of all the soldiers, sailors, airmen, and marines and their families, this Nation, along with our allies around the world, would not stand so boldly, shine so brightly and live so freely.

-Lane Evans

