

1. Gather for the welcome and first story at the fireplace.
2. Choose one storyteller.

Witching Tales

Come hear tales about a woman not afraid of anything, a story about some stupendous pie, the first witch to use a broom, a more Halloween spooks.

Spooky Silliness

Come hear tales about silly monsters and their Halloween Adventures.

Frightfully Yummy Tales

Come hear a tale of someone who escapes being eaten and other yummy tales.

Spooky Halloween Tales

Come hear tales of the first Halloween, a hungry skeleton, and a queen who comes to life in a mirror and more.

Creepy Ghost Stories

Come hear tales that are likely to curl your toes and your nose.

3. Gather for music at the fireplace.
4. Choose a writing activity and play at the Gross Table.

Creepy Creature Stories

Write a story about a creature using a story starter.

Mysterious Pictures

Write a cryptic story with others. Choose a picture and join the fun.

Follow the Tactile Tale of Poor Joe

Experience this engaging tale with your eyes, ears and fingers.

5. Gather for sharing time at the fireplace.
6. Gather for the Good Night Story at the fireplace.
7. Enjoy your snack.

Happy Halloween!!

A special Thank You for everyone that took a risk and shared their talents and love of reading and learning!

Target Grants for Education for funding this event.

Anne Huston,
Riverside Public Library
Nancy Bitzer
Ethan Clarkson
Rebecca Harazin
Terry Kallas
Jennifer Leimberer
Cheryl Longo
Art Perry
Gonzo Schexnayder
Josie Sinn
Mr. Ricky
Mr. Howes
Mr. Ken

Kim Krueger,
Brookfield Public Library
Martha Carlson
Will Dunleavy
Vaughn Hilpp
Kay Kostal
Tim Leimberer
Linda Maher-Ozowski
Jennifer Perry
Jackie Skender
Molly Tracy
Miss Keller
Ms. Becker
Tracy Hilpp

And all those that collected milk jugs and helped transform the gym for this event.

Welcome to Hollywood School's Family Reading Night

2010

A Guide to Family Reading Night

