Meet the Artist: Kenneth Andreys -- Saturday, April 17, 2-4 pm

Riversider, Kenneth Andreys, just received the great honor from Columbia College Chicago Photography Department, who has acquired his collection; "Gus Kostopulos, Architect" for its digital archive. Gus Kostopulos, an architect, for the last 50 years has had a front row seat watching his profession be transformed from small firms into global conglomerates. His most famous commission was for Playboy's founder Hugh Hefner, the interior of a DC-9 Airplane named "Big Bunny". A video clip of the Big Bunny will be shown during this reception. Meet the artist and find out more about his photographic processes.

Meet and Greet Library Trustees! Throughout the week, your elected Library officials will be available in the Great Room. They will meet patrons, answer any questions you may have about the Library, as well as offering a small treat for those who stop by! Check the schedule of times/dates on the Library's website (www.riversidelibrary.org) or on the Library's bulletin board.

Used and Discarded Book Sale! Join us for a small book sale of materials which are used or discarded from our collection. There are some great titles available.

Lost Library Card Amnesty! Come in and replace a lost library card at no charge during National Library Week. Please remember that you need to have a library card with you whenever you check out library material or use the Internet.

Famous Author Autograph Fire Sale! The Library has autographs of many of your favorite authors – now's the time to buy one for $1.00 and get one for free! Support Riverside Library and have a keepsake from your favorite author!
